Several Canine groups will be present and offering demonstrations and

The sponsors are several animal rescue and humane groups including Greyhounds Galore. Bring your hounds and a blanket and showcase your pet.

Please keep the family of Condor, John and Jen Krebs, in your prayers. Condor passed away after a courageous battle with bone cancer. She was the Krebs first greyhound and added sweetness and the typical grace and stoicism to their lives.

Words to Live By

*"You see at just the right time, when we were powerless, Christ died for the ungodly."
Romans 5:6*

Churchie's Corner

I want y'all to pay attention to how to pick a good home. Some important points to follow are:

- ✚ Are they reliable? Humans should be counted on for meal times at the same time every day. That goes for treats, out times, lap times, play times and bed times, too.
- ✚ Are they neat freaks? After all, we are dogs, some of us are neat, but most of us like to leave our toys, chewies, slime, excess crumbs and other things we may drag in from outside all over the place. Neat freaks tend to be a little intolerant.
- ✚ Are they a little spooked when you let out a sudden ear shattering-come-from-nowhere-for-no-good-reason bark? Its best if humans can take things like that in stride and think you're even cuter for having some spontaneity.

Remember: We want to be loved all the time. And we will love all the time back if we choose that special home carefully.

And don't forget about singing. I especially love to sing and want my humans to join me for a song now and then.
